

I urge you to keep the current media ownership rules in place.
This will serve the public rather than corporate interests. Please do not ease restrictions on media ownership.